ROUND DENMARK RACE 2023

INVITATION

Version: 11th Nov 2022

Official Invitation for

GARMIN ROUND DENMARK RACE 2023

3RD – 13TH AUGUST 2023

ORGANIZERS

The Garmin Round Denmark Race Aarhus (RDR) is organized by a partnership between Sailing Aarhus, Shorthand Event Content Marketing and the Foundation Aarhus International Sailing Center, here after named the Event Management.

THE VENUE

The official venue for the RDR is the Aarhus International Sailing Center, Esther Aggeboesgade 80A, DK-8000 Aarhus C, Denmark. Where nothing else indicated, all onshore activities will be conducted at the official venue.

THE RACE....

- The RDR inshore will start and finish in Aarhus, Denmark. In the race you will pass Skagen, East of Bornholm, Christiansø and South of Lolland-Falster and Fyn. When finishing in Aarhus you have sailed a race of approximately 680 NM.
- The RDR offshore will start in Esbjerg after passing Blåvandshuk and after rounding North of Skagen, East of Bornholm, Christiansø and South of Lolland-Falster. The route will be kept east of Fyn, and you will have sailed a race of approximately 760 NM when finishing in Aarhus.

The exact route will be described in the Race Instructions.

RULES AND REQUIREMENTS

The rules that govern the RDR are stated in the 'RDR Event Regulations'. The RDR Event Regulations are published on the RDR Official Noticeboard. Please study this document carefully before signing up for the RDR.

NEW: The 2023 RDR will introduce ORC Club scoring as a non-mandatory option for yachts holding a valid ORC Club certificate – see the RDR event regulations for further information.
